GOVERNMENT’S LIST OF POTENTIAL WITNESSES

The UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by its attorney, PATRICK J. FITZGERALD, United States Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, respectfully submits this Government’s List of Potential Witnesses. This list includes those individuals who the government expects to call at this time as well as other individuals that the government may call if necessary. The government also anticipates filing at a later date the Government’s List of Proposed Witnesses, which will be a list of witnesses the government expects to call in the order the government anticipates calling them. The government also may add additional witnesses to this Government’s List of Potential Witnesses and will file an amended list as it becomes necessary.¹

¹ There are a number of stipulations the government will be proposing which will hopefully eliminate the need to call certain witnesses. If stipulations cannot be reached, additional witnesses may need to be added. For example, the government may need to call a custodian of records for the Chicago Police Department, or various court reporters to authenticate prior admissions by the defendant if there are no agreed stipulations.
